SUGAR AGAIN GOES DOWN

The American Stocks in the London Market Show Advances-The Sustaining Influence the Reduction in the Discount Rate-Active Trading in Granger and Railway Shares.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.-American stocks ere shown at further material advances in the London Stock Market this morning and general strength prevailed there, largely because of a reduction of 6 per cent in the Bank of England's discount not attributed to any definite advices from the seat of war. The local market opened substantially higher in sympathy with the advances scored in London, but it subsequently reacted slightly upon the appearance. of further demoralization in Sugar

Refining.

The dealings in that stock overshadowed those elsewhere in the market. The stock those elsewhere in the market inch is final those elsewhere in the market. The stock opened somewhat below last night's final figures, and after a short-lived advance it again broke very rapidly. The trading was, of course, wholly governed by inferences drawn from the remarks of the President at the annual meeting yester day in respect to the dividend probabilities in March.

The trading elsewhere was most active in the granger shares, Baltimore and Ohio and Brooklyn Rapid Transit, but, as noted Sugar Refining fairly overshadowed the re-mainder of the market.

the news of the morning were the reduc-tion in the Bank of England discount rate to 5 per cent, the arrival of Robetts and Kitchener in South Africa, and a number, of good earnings' statements. A good bank statement is looked for this week, and it is said by financial people that the flow of gold to London has ceased for the winter in all probability.

In a Restaurant.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at inch or dinner time the large number of lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixry to eighty years; many of them bald and all perhaps grey, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gin-gerly picking their way through a menu-card of new-fangled health foods; on the contrary, they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran ackers.
There is a certain class of food cranks

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee, and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous, sickly-looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydrochloric acid, diastase, and nux. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels, and, in fact, are not strictly a medicine, as they act somewhat entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly, and thus gives a much-needed est, and giving an appetite for the next meal.
